Gift of Mercy

God of mercy, you rain down compassion
on a world in great need of healing
and shower humanity with unconditional love.
Pour your Holy Spirit into our hearts today.
Help each of us to receive your gift of mercy
and allow it to transform our lives.

As we celebrate in Easter joy,
make us instruments of peace and mercy
in our families, communities, and Church.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful heart,
and I will fill it with peace.

(St. Faustina's Diary, 1074)

I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it.

By means of this image I shall be granting many graces to souls.

(St. Faustina's Diary, 341)

• Prayer Requests •

Please remember John Robinson, the sick, the hospitalized, and those who care for them. Pray also for homebound St. Vincent parishioners.

Jesus meets the need of each disciple. To the fearful in the upper room, He speaks words of peace. To doubting Thomas, He provides the tangible proof of His resurrection. What do I need to become His disciple? What do I have to share that might meet someone else's need?

Hospitality Committee Meeting

All Hospitality Committee members and Hospitality Mass Greeters are invited to a meeting on Monday, April 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the upper meeting room. Father Rick will update the team on upcoming hospitality events and give an explanation of the new "Help Desk."

Here are a few ideas to show your appreciation to your priests:

- Pray, fast and offer sacrifices for your priests.
- Send your priests a gift card to a restaurant, gas station, grocery store, Amazon, etc.
- Post a picture of you and your family with your priests on social media.
- Make a charitable donation in honor of your priests - St. Vincent de Paul Parish, St. Mary's Food Pantry, Birthright, etc.
- Volunteer in honor of your priests — there are plenty of opportunities in your parish! Be an usher, sacristan, volunteer for youth ministry, PSR, etc.
- Sign-up for Food for Fathers at <https://signup.com/go/asyQDwa>.

Eucharistic Minister Workshop

All current Eucharistic Ministers and past Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (Eucharistic Ministers) are invited to attend one of the upcoming renewal workshops. More Eucharistic Ministers will be needed because Bishop Rice is allowing parishes to offer the Precious Blood during Holy Communion beginning on Divine Mercy Sunday. During the Covid crisis, as an act of caution, the reception of the Precious Blood was suspended. Now two years later, Covid has become part of the new normal and most people can continue to live their lives.

The workshops will be held in Church. Choose from one of the following:

- Tuesday, April 18, at 6:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, April 26, at 6:00 p.m.

First Communion Celebration

The Sacrament of Holy Eucharist will be celebrated for First Communicants at the 5:00 p.m., 9:00 a.m., 10:45 a.m., and 3:00 p.m. Masses, Saturday and Sunday, April 22-23, 2023. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers during this time of preparation.

Congratulations to Jason and Jackie Johnson
as they celebrate their
25th Wedding Anniversary
and to
Shawn and Danna Parker
as they celebrate their 30th Wedding Anniversary!

Look What's Happening with St. Vincent Stewardship and Service

Catherine's Cupboard - What are the large green bins for by each church door? They are collection points for items donated each Sunday according to the following schedule.

- First Sunday - Birthright; Any items for baby and mom.
- Second Sunday - FISH (Friends in Service to Him) Food Pantry
- Third Sunday - Sister Lucille M. Zerr S.S.N.D. Food Pantry (St. Mary Cathedral)
- Fourth Sunday - Red Star Baptist Food Pantry

The pantries need food items including canned goods, tuna, chicken, fruit, and vegetables, as well as, items like peanut butter, cereal, macaroni and cheese, etc. As you come to church, consider making it part of your weekly routine to donate items to Birthright and area food pantries by placing items in the green bins. Thank you!

Do you know that St. Vincent de Paul sends out an email of events happening in the parish every week? This is a great communication tool and it helps to keep people connected. If you would like to be a part of this communication, please contact Becky Kitchen, Social Media Coordinator, at kitchenbecky19@gmail.com and she will add you to the email list.

Easter is much more than a single day in the calendar year. Rejoicing in Christ's Resurrection is the focus of the Easter season in the Church and the highlight of each Sunday Liturgy. As Christ's triumph is remembered and celebrated, tune into Covenant Network Catholic radio for info and inspiration throughout this holy season. Many ways to listen: on the radio 94.3 FM; on the Covenant Network mobile app or at OurCatholicRadio.org.

Campus Planning Update

Many parishioners have been asking about the work of the Campus Planning Team. Since the building of the new rectory and the razing of the old rectory two years ago, the Campus Planning Team has been meeting. The next project to be finished will be the parking lot to the south of the church. This is where the old rectory was located.

After working with the City of Cape Girardeau and using the expertise of Bowen Engineering, there is a plan to move forward in May. The City asked that the plan include an area for water retention. This retention basin will be in the backyard of the house at 2000 Woodlawn, which the parish was able to purchase in December. (Side Note: The 2000 Woodlawn House is being reserved for a religious community of Sisters who may arrive in the summer of 2024. Until the Sisters arrive, the 2000 Woodlawn House will be used for other purposes.)

This new parking lot will have space for approximately 50 vehicles. On the parking area closest to church, there will be handicap parking. This is adjacent to a new ramp that will lead to the side door of church.

If you want to review the design, a display of the new parking lot is in the gathering area of church. In a few weeks, the Campus Planning Team will update you about the possible plans for the De Paul Center (old Notre Dame building).

Low-Gluten Hosts for Holy Communion

Low-gluten communion hosts are available at all weekend liturgies to those suffering from Celiac Sprue disease. The hosts, made by the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in Clyde, Missouri, contain 0.01% wheat gluten. They are accepted by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/celiac-disease-and-alcohol-intolerance.cfm>), and are recommended by the journal Gluten-Free Living as "perfectly safe" for sufferers of Celiac Sprue disease (Vol. 9, no. 1). The Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau has approved these low-gluten altar breads for use in the Diocese. During a weekend Mass, the minister having the consecrated low-gluten hosts will be in the center aisle on the left side. When you approach this minister, just indicate that you need one of these consecrated hosts.

Bulldogs at Busch

Notre Dame will take on Jersey Community High School at Busch Stadium on Thursday, May 4! The St. Louis Cardinals will play the Los Angeles Angels for a 12:15 p.m. first pitch, immediately followed by the Notre Dame baseball game.

Notre Dame is selling tickets on the first base side for $30 each ($44 face value). Ticket includes entry into the St. Louis Cardinal game and the Notre Dame Bulldog game.

Tickets can be purchased at www.notredamehighschool.org/busch and can then be picked up at Notre Dame between 7:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Monday - Friday when school is in session. Tickets can also be mailed, or sent home with a ND student.

Thank You

Thank you to all who Walked the Journey Together from Ash Wednesday to Easter 2023. The Discipleship Committee would like to thank everyone who picked up and used the second annual parish reflection booklet during their Lenten journey. Hopefully you were inspired by the many thought-provoking reflections written by St. Vincent's own parishioners.

This project takes several months to come to fruition. Along with the 46 writers, the Discipleship Committee would like to give special thanks to Bridget Wengert for coordinating the project, to Rose Huff for editing and printing the booklet, and to the members of the Discipleship Committee who reached out to parishioners to secure writers for this year's booklet and edited the submissions.

Volunteers Needed

Share Pregnancy and Infant Loss Support, Inc. is a nationally recognized program that Saint Francis Healthcare System uses as a backbone to provide support and education to bereaved parents and family during the loss of an early pregnancy, infant, or stillbirth. The program provides mementos such as pictures, castings of the hands and feet, and burial gowns and suits for these precious babies. If you would be interested in sewing gowns and suits from donated wedding gowns, please contact April Bond, RN at 573-331-5917 or Sarah Beth Ross, RN at 573-225-0897 for more information.

The mission of Share Pregnancy and Infant Loss Support, Inc. is to serve those whose lives are touched by the tragic death of a baby through pregnancy loss, stillbirth, or in the first few months of life.

eGiving with Faith Direct

Spring is in full bloom - God's glory is all around! If you want to help St. Vincent de Paul flourish, now is the perfect time to make the switch to eGiving. You can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift; you'll be growing the ministries that share the Good News of God's love.

Your recurring gifts will sustain and strengthen the parish. You'll provide St. Vincent Parish with consistent support that helps with programs, services, and ministries for church families and for those in need throughout the community. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/MO885. Thank you for your continued support of the St. Vincent Parish family.

This Week at Home

Follow Acts

Monday, April 17

A reading from Acts is proclaimed on nearly each day of the Easter season. Written as a continuance of his Gospel account, Luke paints the broad strokes of the Church's development from the resurrection of Jesus to Paul's first imprisonment. Luke emphasizes the powerful role of the Holy Spirit in the formation of the Christian community and the spread of the Word of God. Read Acts through to gain a perspective of how this period unfolded. Today's readings: Acts 4:23-31; Psalm 2:1-3, 4-7a, 7b-9; John 3:1-8.

Everyone Had Enough

Tuesday, April 18

The early Christian community laid the groundwork for upholding the common good by placing their treasure in a common purse to be shared fairly across the community. As a result, everyone had enough. Religious communities and some other intentional Christian communities follow this practice to this day. The care for the whole community supersedes the wants of the individual. While this ideal may seem radical to our modern way of thinking, there is much to be learned. How can you more intentionally share from our wealth with the most vulnerable in society? Today's readings: Acts 4:32-37; Psalm 93:1ab, 1cd-2, 5; John 3:7b-15.

Walk in the Light

Wednesday, April 19

During the Advent season as we await the birth of Christ, the prophet Isaiah announces, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light" (Isaiah 9:1). Jesus himself proclaims, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life" (John 8:12). In today's Gospel reading, Jesus equates light with the eternal power of good and dark with the power of evil. As Christians, we are invited to walk in the light, to seek the truth, and to practice goodness. Today's readings: Acts 5:17-26; Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9; John 3:16-21.

Obey God

Thursday, April 20

When confronted by the temple leaders about their bold preaching, Peter and the apostles reply, "We must obey God" (Acts 5:29). The Latin root of the word obey means "listen" or "hear." This is powerful instruction for us today. There are so many loud and competing voices in the world. As Christians, we are charged to listen to the voice of God. Attending carefully to the preaching of the apostles in Acts and the speeches of Jesus in the Gospel of John will strengthen the words of truth in our hearts and help drown out all others. Today's readings: Acts 5:27-33; Psalm 34:2 and 9, 17-18, 19-20; John 3:31-36.

My Light and My Salvation

Friday, April 21

Our responsorial psalm for today captures the essence of Easter faith. We keep our eyes glued on the Lord throughout our earthly life with hope that we will rest in the house of the Lord for all of eternity. Carry Psalm 27 in your pocket, tape it on your bathroom mirror, and pray it daily until you have it memorized. It will carve a path to holiness. Today's readings: Acts 5:34-42; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13-14; John 6:1-15.

Miracles Abound

Saturday, April 22

We hear of two powerful miracles in today's readings. Acts relates that the number of those in Jerusalem coming to believe in Jesus "increased greatly" (Acts 6:7). John's Gospel recounts how Jesus rejoined the disciples in the boat by walking across the water. Which miracle stirs your heart more: the exponential number of people coming to faith or Jesus walking across the sea? Take it to prayer. Today's readings: Acts 6:1-7; Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; John 6:16-21.

Sunday, April 16

Divine Mercy

Today's readings: Acts 2:42-47; Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24; 1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31. During the Jubilee Year of 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized Sr. Faustina Kowalska and declared that the universal Church would henceforth observe the Sunday after Easter as the Sunday of Divine Mercy. As we end the Octave of Easter, we are invited to contemplate the mystery of the resurrection in the light of God's infinite mercy. The richness of God's mercy radiates through today's Scriptures and especially in Jesus' compassionate response toward Thomas' unbelief. The gift of mercy is explicitly given when Jesus commissions his disciples as ministers of divine mercy: "He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained'" (John 20:22-23). Through entrusting the first disciples with the gift of forgiving sins, Jesus initiated a waterfall of mercy for all of humanity.

Sr. Faustina repeatedly heard a call to proclaim God's mercy to the world. She promoted the chaplet of divine mercy to raise spiritual awareness of God's mercy. Today, many Catholics will visit shrines devoted to divine mercy and pray the chaplet of divine mercy. Our Church announces to the world that God is merciful and that we are invited to rest in his loving embrace. May our hearts grow more aware of the mercy of God in our lives. In turn, may we actively show mercy to those who need it most.
